UNIT Getting started

Welcome English Unlocked! (Upper Intermediate level).

1 Table completion

Read the conversation. Then, complete the table with the correct information. Josh and Kelly are in the lift in the office where they work. They start talking to one another.

- Josh: Hi. I'm Josh Bates. Pleased to meet you.
Kelly: Kelly Smith. Pleased to meet you too.
Josh: You're new here, aren't you?
Kelly: Actually, I've been working here for more than a year. I work on the 14th floor in the accounts department. What about you?
Josh: I'm on the 9th floor in the marketing department. Are you from round here?
Kelly: I'm American, originally from Seattle, but I was brought up in Australia. However, I've been living here for about ten years now. I guess I've got a bit of an unusual accent. What about you?
Josh: I'm English – from Brighton. My mum's American, but I've never lived there. I was brought up in Canada though.
Kelly: Oh, right. So, where's your mum from?
Josh: Texas.
Kelly: I've got some distant cousins down there. Anyway, it's been nice talking to you.
Josh: [The lift gets to the 9th floor. Josh is going to get out.] Yeah, maybe we'll bump into each other again. Have a nice afternoon.
Kelly: You too. Bye.

2 Matching

Match the questions (1 to 8) to the answers (a-h). Afterwards, answer the questions yourself.

1. Have you ever been to Italy? ☐
 2. What would you do if you found a wallet in the street? ☐
 3. What are you doing next Friday evening? ☐
 4. What did you do last night? ☐
 5. What were you doing yesterday at 6pm? ☐
 6. What have you been doing this afternoon? ☐
 7. You live in the city centre, don't you? ☐
 8. Have you sent any text messages today? ☐
- a. I stayed at home and watched a film on TV.
 - b. Nothing much. Dozing on the sofa, mostly.
 - c. Yes, I just sent one to my boss telling her that I'll be in a bit late this morning because of the traffic.
 - d. Yes, I went there once about ten years ago.
 - e. I'm going to the cinema with some friends.
 - f. I was chatting with some friends.
 - g. Yes, that's right, although I'm thinking of moving to the outskirts fairly soon.
 - h. I'd hand it in to the police.

3 Telephone dialogue

Listen to the telephone dialogue. Then, tick (✓) Yes or No.

- | | Yes | No |
|--|--------------------------|--------------------------|
| 1. Pauline wants to talk to Ms Hargreaves. | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 2. Pauline's surname is Summers. | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 3. Ms Hargreaves is in a meeting. | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 4. Pauline won't be able to go to the 3pm meeting. | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 5. Pauline needs some toner for the printer. | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> |

Don't worry too much about making "mistakes". Even native speakers get things wrong when speaking. It happens when you're talking fast and trying to communicate a message. The important thing is being able to correct yourself, or identify any mistakes in your written work.

Amelia Roberts

Amelia Roberts has been with the company for four years now. She's been working in the marketing department, but started out here in sales.

Amelia studied at Winstone School for girls, and then Oxford University. After leaving university, she set up her own online business, which was making a profit of over $200,000 a year after just three years. In her free time, Amelia likes to ride, swim, play tennis, sail and ski. She's also a talented musician who plays the piano, cello and saxophone.

At present, she lives in a large, eight-bedroom, 22 acre mansion in Highbury, along with her husband, two children and four dogs, six cats and two horses. She says that she spends a lot of her weekends riding and looking after the children and pets. Amelia is also a member of Reform, a charity which works to help prisoners who need financial assistance to help prove their innocence.
